ANALYTICAL SERVICES AND RESEARCH PROJECTS

geochronology, isotopic analysis, and mineral separation

For analytical services or research collaborations contact one of our research team (see contact info below) to work out what analyses, data, and sample preparation are needed and for timing and pricing information.

Ideally samples should have a IGSN number (visit <https://geosamples.org> to signup/login to your account and then to register samples).

Isotope Geochemistry Laboratories team:

lab manager, Joe Andrew (jeandrew@ku.edu)

lab P.I.s: Noah McLean (nmclean@ku.edu)

Andreas Moller (amoller@ku.edu)

Doug Walker (jdwalker@ku.edu)
